

AIA360 Declaration & Authorisation

I hereby agree that AIA Singapore Private Limited (“the Company”) has my consent to collect, use, retain and disclose my personal data that is provided by me to the Company in (or as part of) this registration and any related surveys, assessments and reports, provided that such disclosure is limited to the Company's associated individuals/organisations and/or independent third parties and their representatives, whether within or outside Singapore, for the following purposes in relation to the AIA360 exclusive online research community owned by the Company (managed and administered by a third party vendor) (“AIA360”):

- (a) To contact me via mail, electronic transmission (e.g. email), SMS, MMS, telephone, fax and other means of communication (via all my telephone numbers, whether registered in Singapore or otherwise), in relation to my membership and participation in AIA360, to provide information, news, promotions, offers and updates regarding AIA360 and its related products and services; and/or

- (b) To conduct research and statistical analysis, based on any statements, posts, opinions or any other feedback that I have posted on AIA360 or otherwise provided to the Company. I understand and agree that any such analysis may be used by the Company to develop products and/or upgrade their products/services and I will not be entitled to any benefits or other remuneration relating to such developments and/or upgrades.

I hereby specifically waive any right to bring a claim of any nature against the Company, its associated individuals/organisations and/or independent third parties and their representatives, whether within or outside Singapore, in respect of any above-mentioned collection, usage, retention and/or disclosure of such personal data to the fullest extent permitted by any applicable law.